THE DAY OF THE SPECIALIST.

For each of us some task is planned-Some thing there is that you May do more perfectly than I And far more deftly, too; One doctor treats the ears or eyes, And one the dreaded knife applies— Each has his work to do.

'Tis one man's lot to drive the ox Along the winding trail; The scholar might attempt to take The driver's place and fail; One paints, thus cheating wind and sun, One lays the plaster on and one Drives home the slender nail.

I know one who has never put The world much in his debt; No art, no science e'er has been Adorned by him as yet; You might conclude, perhaps, that he Excelled in naught, but you should see S. E. Kiser, in Chicago Record-Herald.

A Knave of Conscience

By FRANCIS LYNDE.

(Copyright 1900, by Francis Lynde.)

CHAPTER XIV.—CONTINUED.

Mrs. Raymer smiled. "The mere fact of her having said such a thing to you ought to be a sufficient answer, I should think."

"I don't see why," Raymer ob-"What would you think if Gertrude did such a thing?" "Oh, well; that is different. In the first place Gerty wouldn't do it; and-"Precisely. And Miss Grierson shouldn't have done it. But if you really want to know why we haven't cultivated her I can tell you. There are a few of us who think she wouldn't be a pleasant person to know socially.' "But why?" insisted the obtuse one. It was his sister who undertook to make it plain to him.

"It isn't anything she does, or doesn't do, particularly; it is the atmosphere in which she moves. If it wasn't for her father's money she would be-well, it is rather hard to say just what she would be. But she always makes one think of the. bonanza people-the pick and shovel one day and a million the next. I believe she is a frank little savage at heart."

"I don't," said Raymer, doggedly. "She may be a bit new and fresh for Wahaska, but she is clever and bright, and honest enough to ignore a social code which makes a virtue of hypocrisy. There isn't one young woman in a thousand who would have had the courage to do it."

"Or the impudence," added Mrs. Raymer, when her son had left the room. "I do hope Edward isn't gohim and Charlotte."

Gertrude laughed. "I should say march between them as it is. Char- into it before he resigned himself to lotte has been home a week now, and he hasn't been over yet."

"But he is going over to dinner with us to-morrow," amended Mrs. Raymer, complacently. "He promised me yesterday."

Gertrude was arranging the centerpiece for the dinner table, and when she spoke again it was of another

"Did you know Mrs. Holcomb has found a boarder at last?" "No; who is he?"

"A young man who has been sick at the St. James for two or three weeks. He is from New York, I believe she said; but she didn't have time to find out much about him. He had a relapse last night; and today, when she sent for Dr. Farnham, he was delirious."

"Dear me! That will be hard for Martha. What is his name?" "Kenneth Griswold. She says he is an author, but I don't recall the name in any of our reading." "Nor I," said Mrs. Raymer. "Poor Martha! We must go over and see if there is anything we can do."

CHAPTER XV.

When Margery entered her father's private office after her small hotel. At the end of the fortnight embarrassed when Raymer intro-century." say: "Want to see me, Maggie?" And when she nodded, he reached for pushed him over the verge. his check-book.

"No, it isn't money this time. Has Mr. Raymer an account with you?" "Yes.

"Is it an accommodation to you?" Grierson's laugh was of contempt. "Hardly. The shoe's on the other

"Leu mean that he has borrowed from you?"

"Not yet, but he wants to."

"What for?" "To enlarge his plant. He's like all the other fools; ain't content to grow with his capital."

"Are you going to stake him?" Margery waged relentless war with him up and send him over. Where her inclination to lapse into the did you say this young man hails steech of the mining camps, but she from?" still stumbled now and then. "I guess not; I've never had much use for him." "Why haven't you?"

off. He hasn't much use for me. I any money?" offered to incorporate his outfit for "Plenty, I think. He paid a month him six months ago, and told him in advance, and when he went to bed I'd take 51 per cent. of the stock my- he told me where to find his pocketself; but he wouldn't talk about it." book." Margery's laugh might have meant anything from applause to derision. willing to let you help him?"

"Not that way. He wants to bor-"But I want you to do it."

things with a pretty high hand?"

money yet, have "?" "No, I guess not."

"Well, I'm not going to begin now. the security is good."

you're driving at."

me down." Grierson's laugh was a guffaw. "That won't work a little bit,

Maggie."

"Why won't it?" his women when he gets into trou- and daughter came with dainties for time, but I must confess that I am ble. They'll go on bluffing you just the widow's invalid; and later at shamelessly epicurean by nature, and deal, poppa mine, but you don't a potential writer of books. know everything. Mr. Raymer's infourth. The other three-fourths belong to Mrs. Raymer and Gertrude." ing was a ride in Raymer's buggy to with vanity struggling to muzzle the protest. "I have written but one The magnate nodded intelligence, I'll break the syndicate for you." "You will do nothing of the kind. You'll let Mr. Raymer get into deep valescent was an enthusiastic stuwater, and then, when I say the dent of the vexed problem of masword, you'll pull him out."

"The mischief I will! Do you freely. know how much he wants to borrow?"

the better." Jasper Grierson thought about it for a moment. Then he made a check-mark against the memorandum on the calendar pad. "All right; go ahead, but you'll have to keep tab yourself, and say when. I can't be bothered keeping the run of your society tea parties." "I don't want you to. Don't be late to dinner to-night. The Rodneys are coming."

When she was gone Jasper Grierson tilted back in the pivot-chair and lighted a cigar. After a bit his reflections found voice.

"By jing! I believe she thought she was fooling me! But it's too thin. 'I suppose she does want to make the women kowtow, but that isn't all there is to it, by a jugful. All the same, I'll back her to win."

Accordingly, when Mr. Edward Raymer came out of the banker's office the next morning he was treading upon air, and in his mind's eye there was a picture of a great industry to be builded upon the extension of credit promised by Jasper

CHAPTER XVI.

Griswold had landed in Wahaska ing to let that girl come between St. Louis, too ill to care much about two." to find a bank, to rent a safety de- obligations to Grierson, and can't afthere was room for a regiment to posit box and to lock the treasure ford to be offish. But Miss Margery

"BUT I WANT YOU TO DO IT."

the inevitable, allowing himself to be put to bed in his room at the St. James, with hot water bottles at

For a fortnight he hung tremulous on the verge of collapse, and was kept from tumbling in only by a just horror of being seriously ill in a triumph at Raymer's expense, her he made shift to go out and find a plan of campaign had taken a more boarding place; and the effort, coudefinite shape. The president was pled with the conviction that he hands of motherly Mrs. Holcomb, Here Dr. Farnham found him tossing in delirium, and his verdict was promptly pronounced.

"Typhoid-malaria, Mrs. Holcomb; and a relapse, at that. What are you going to do with him?" "What should I do but take care of him?" said the motherly one. "You can't do it alone; it's no woman's job." "Then we must get a man. There's Sven Oleson; he's out of work." The doctor smiled. "Nobody but you would ever think of making a nurse out of that great, overgrown child. But maybe he'll do. I'll hunt

"New York, he says." "Humph! that's odd. 'I should say he has been soaking himself full of malaria in the Yazoo swamps. But "Oh, I don't know; it's a stand- how about the expenses? . Has he enough to find somebody he could you could have known the old Wa. full."-Chicago Daily News. "How singular! But now he is trust. Well, we'll do what we can haska." for him, and I'll send Sven."

"I can imagine it," he said. So it came about that the mildrow money of the bank and give a eyed Swede was installed as Gris- to sit around the edges of the room What is his particular hobby? mortgage on the plant. It's safe wold's nurse. Luckily Oleson under- and behave themselves just as hard enough, but I don't believe I'll do it." stood but little English, and the sick as they could, and bore each other a system of wireless politics. It. i man's ravings about the bank rob- to death."

"The dickens you do! Say, little bery meant nothing to him; but Dr. | "It's a miracle," he said, giving her girl, do you know you're carrying Farnham heard them and wondered. full credit. "I'd like to know how Curiously enough a small thing satis- you did it." "I haven't made you lose any fied the wonder, and that was the his patient's calling.

Lend him what he wants; you say accounts for his harping so contin- fallen into a way of boring one an "I'll be hanged if I can see what It's a part of his plot."

imperturbably. "But I don't mind cozz's spare bedroom; and it was exactly the acme of social enjoytelling you. His mother and sister a full month later when Dr. Farn- ment.' have gone out of their way to put ham pronounced him out of danger took care of himself.

During the weeks of convalescence he met many of Mrs. Holcomb's "Because he ain't the man to go to them the Raymers. The mother out of the social running for a long they brought Edward, who was booke only an ascetic of necessity." She looked at him through nar- ish enough in his leisure moments rowing eyelids. "You know a good to be interested in one who was even

That acquaintance ripened into terest in the iron works is only one- friendship, and Griswold's first out-

Here the two young men met upon and made a memorandum. "I savez; new common ground. Raymer was, light." or he meant to be, a model employer; and when he found that the conhe explained. "But when I get on failure. "No, and I don't care. The more my feet and out of debt I'm going

"Good," said Griswold. "I wish I might be in it with you. I'd like to flail that out with you when I'm fit." "So you shall, but not yet." They were on the way back to Mrs. Hol- here and let me cheer you. Cheerdrive had tired him.

"No indeed; I feel better for it." "Are you equal to an evening out?" "I guess so, if it's sufficiently

"It'll be mild enough. You know we have a magnate here, Mr. Jasper Grierson?" "Yes, I've heard of him."

"Well, he has a daughter, and this is her 'evening.' I'm commanded to produce you as soon as you're able." "I'll go, though I shan't know anyone but your mother and Miss Ger-

"They won't be there. That islittle one. Miss Grierson is la dame er and Gertrude affiliate with the panion. other."

"N-o-not exactly. But I'm under is a very clever little person, and well worth knowing on her own account. I'll call by for you with the buggy at nine." "Thank you," said the convales-thought: "Will Miss Farnham be there?" "Hardly," rejoined Raymer, gathering up the reins. "She is with the minority, too. Queer little world, isn't it? So long, till this evening. Better go in and lie down awhile."

CHAPTER XVII.

On the way to Miss Grierson's by speculating upon the probable barbarism of a country reception. Without suspecting it, he was insular to a degree little short of ly sweeping generality, but not withameliorating the barbarisms.

Wherefore he was properly humiliated when they were met at the door of the Grierson mansion by trained his feet and a bag of chopped ice on servants and announced in the drawing-room with such pomp and circumstance as was neither countrified nor barbaric. In good truth the he and not Miss Grierson who was duced him.

"How good of you to come to us busy at his desk, but he turned to might safely trust himself in the Let me make you comfortable." She on your first day out, Mr. Griswold. and said nothing .- N. Y. Tribune. piled the cushions in a corner of the wide divan and made him sit down. "You are just to be an invalid this to let anyone bore you.

Griswold gasped once or twice, and grappled manfully with the facts. A young girl was at the piano; there was a pleasant hum of conversation; everybody, himself excepted, seemed quite at ease; the lights were not glaring; the furnishings were not in bad taste; in a word, the keynote was altogether' well-mannered and urban and conventional. And his hostess. Griswold had met beautiful women, but none to compare with her. She shone upon and dazzled him. The charm was purely sensuous, and he knew it, but he basked in it like a lizard in the sun. But he was forgetting to thank cian of the parson.

her. "Forgive me, Miss Grierson; I'm not usually tongue-tied. But it is all so charmingly homelike; so vastly-' She supplied the word with a silvery little laugh. "Different. I know. You thought we were barbarians, and so we used to be. But we're improving. I wish

"I wonder if you can. They used

She laughed lightly and did not mention made by Mrs. Holcomb of deny her handiwork. "It was simple enough. When we came here I "H-m; an author. is he? That found a lot of good people who had ually upon that bank robbery story. other, and a few who hadn't; but these last held aloof. We opened our It was the first of May when Gris- house to the many and tried to show "You don't have to see," she said, wold took possession of Mrs. Hol- them that a church sociable wasn't Griswold saw in his mind's eye a and in a fair way to recover if he sharply etched picture of the rise of a village magnate. Verily, Miss Grierson had imagination.

"It is all very grateful and delightfriends and neighbors, and among ful to me," he said. "I have been > appreciation. "An author has to be both, hasn't he?-keen to enjoy and hardened to endure." "I'm not an author," he corrected.

book, and that has not yet seen the "But it will," she asserted, fidently. "Tell me about it." Now, Griswold was no babbler, but the charm of her personality was ter and man, he unbosomed himself upon him, and before he knew what he was about he was telling her of the person taking it. Thousands of Drunkads have cured themselves with

"But you are not going to give it to try a plan my father had in mind up," she said, when he had made an end. tered by loving friends and relatives "No: it's my message, and I shall without their knowledge in coffee or yet deliver it." "Bravo! That is the woirit that wins always. And when you get blue and discouraged, you must come were on the way back to Mrs. Holcomb's, and Raymer asked if the ing people is my mission, if I have CURE" is sold at the extremely low

> [To Be Continued.] HAD PUT IT TO PROOF.

Samuel Had Traveled Enough to Become Convinced of the Flatness of the Earth. 1849 were from the north. There

Most of the men who went west in were, however, a few southerners, among them a Baltimore family who took along an old slave, Samuel Jefferson. Samuel was a patient trav-Raymer laughed, and then blushed. eler on the long journey across the plains, but very skeptical about the Oh pshaw! I suppose I may as well success of his master's expedition. It tell you first as last. There are two was not until his master became one social cliques here, a big one and a of the gold kings of California that Samuel stopped shaking his head in ind Salt Lake City. d'honneur of the first, and my moth- silent protest, relates Youth's Complaining to Samuel the spherical shape of the earth.

"If you should go straight ahead far enough, you'd come right around to where you started from."

"Now look heah, chile, yo' cyan' mek me b'lieve dat. I ain' helped yo' daddy tote his things all de way out cent; adding, as if it were an after- heah f'm Baltimo' f'r nuffin. If what yo' tells me was true, we'd 'a' come back to Ma'ylan' about fo' times. I knows f'm 'sperience, honey, drivin' 'cross dem plains, dat de worl' am flat out-flatter'n a hoecake, clean till yo' bump inter de ocean."

Didn't Recognize Bible Quotation. In spite of the strenuous efforts of Prof. Kittridge, it would seem that "evening" Griswold amused himself Harvard undergraduates still remain ignorant of the Scriptures. Some one once said: "A Harvard man knows all literature but the Bible"-a startling- W. M. SIZAW, Britannic; but he meant to be very out truth so far as the Bible is congood-natured and charitable, and to cerned. A case in point came to light do what one man might toward the other day. Two Harvard men were reading together some famous modern orations, one of them a eulogy. The eulogy closed with the words: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" "What a beautiful close!" exclaimed one of the students, enthusiastically. "The man who wrote such a sentence revulsion was so great that it was as that proves that the grand style in prose did not die with the eighteenth

It should be added in fairness that the other student was a churchman, Epitaph of a Good Indian. On a quaintly contrived tombstone in St. Augustine, Fla., is the following evening, you know. I'm not going unique epitaph, carved many years

Notis This Werry Elaborate
Pile
Is Ereckted in Memory of

A Seminole Ingine Cheef whose wig-warm stood on this spot and sir-roundings. Wee cherish his memery as he was a good harted cheef. He would knot take your scalp without you begged him to do so or pade him sum munny. He allways akted more like a Christian gentleman than a savage Ingine. Let Him R. I. P.

-Chicago Chronicle How They Felt. "How do you feel?" asked the phys.

"And you?" he asked the auctionees "As usual; for-bidding." answered the red-flag follower. "And you?" queried the M. D. of the

"I feel for-giving," replied the good

Kentucky colonel. "Oh, you know me, doe," replied the Kentuckian. "I'm always for-get-

Up-to-Date Reform

Crawford-I hear your minister v taking an interest in public affairs Crabshaw-He is trying to invent THE HOME GOLD CURB.

An Ingenious Treatment by which Drunkards are Reing Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxiuous Doses. No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleas-ant and Positive Cure for the Liquor Habit.

It is now generally known and under-stood that Drunkenness is a disease and not wakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "HOME GOLD CURE" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according * know," she assented, with quick to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of Drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

WIVES CURE YOUR HUSBANDS! CHILDREN CURE YOUR FATHERS! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to tasta, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge Day 'Phone 137. "I've been enlarging, as you see," the dead book, its purpose and its this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temporate men by having the "CURE" adminis tea, and believe today that they discontinved drinking of their own free will. DO NOT WAIT. Do not be deludged by apparent and misleading "improve-ment." Drive out the disease at once Drive out the disease at price of One Dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than the others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package, Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of One Dollar. Address Dept. H 612 EDWIN B. GILES & CO., 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia.

All correspondence strictly confiden-

Cheap to California. The Burlington's Very Low One-Way Settlers' Rates.

Every day during March and April, only $30 from St. Louis, $33 from Chicago to California terminals via Burington Route, Denver, Scenic Colorado

Special through tourist sleepers Samuel lived to a good old age, and to San Francisco and Los Angeles personally conducted over the above "I see," said Griswold. "And you after the war was the special at- route (through Colorado's wonderful on the day following his flight from hold an even balance between the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. One day Hugh, the youngest son, was extended the tendant of his master's children. Louis and Chicago. Secure through berths at the earliest date during this rush, in these Burlington excursions, the best of all to California. Two great Coast trains daily with free thair cars.

Northwest Rates. Cheap Settlers' rates to the far Northwest daily during March and April 1902. Burlington-Northern Pacific Express" is the only through train carryng through equipments from St. Louis and Kansas City to the upper Northwest Home-Seekers' Excursions.

These are run the first and third Tuesdays of each month to the entire West and Northwest. Ask agent for details. Do us the favor to write us of your proposed trip and let us advise you the. lowest cost, the best route and trains, send you printed matter free and assist

L. W. WAKELY, D.P.A. 406 Vine st, Gen'l Pas. Agt., Nincinnati, Ohio. St. Louis, Mo. Cincinnati, Ohio. HOWARD ELLIOTT, General Manager, St. Louis, Mo.

To Cure A Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets All druggists refund the money if it lails to cure. E. W. Grow's signature son each box. 25c. (j25-1yr)

Travelers to California

Naturally desire to see the grandest and most impressive scenery en route. This you will do by selecting the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western, 'The Scenic Line of the World," and 'The Great Salt Lake Route," in one of both directions, as this line has two separate routes across the Rocky Mountains between Denverand Ogden. Tickets reading via this route are available either via its main line through the Royal Gorge, Leadville, over Tennessee Pass, through the Canon of the Grand River and Glenwood Springs or via the line over Marshall Pass and through the Black Canon of the Sunnison, thus enabling the traveler to ase one of the above routes going and the other returning. Three splendidly equipped fast trains are operated to and from the Pacific Coast, which carry through standard sleepers daily between Chicago, St. Louis, Denver and San Francisco. Dining car (service a la carte) on all through trains. If you contemplate such a trip, let us send you beautifully illus. trated pamphlets, free. S. K. Hooper, G. P. & T. A.; Denver, Col. (18martf)

WHERE TO STOP .- When in Lexington, the place to stop is at the Reed Hotel. It is headquarters for Paris and Bourbon county people, and is under the management of genial James Connors, formerly of the Fordham Hotel, in this city. The house is heated by steam, and the table is at all times supfied with the best the market affords Make it your home.

For 28 cents in stamps, you can get a ree trial of Wilson's Tobacco Cure Has cured thousands CORP. WILSON, (31- jan-tf) Calvert, Texas.

TALK to T. Porter Smith shout fir

R. E. L. STEVENS. DENTIST, Office in Agricultural Bank Building

Take Elevator.

Office Hours {8 to 12 a. m. 1 to 5 p. m. Phone 342. (4jun-lyr)

T. McMILLAN, DENTIST,
Office No. 3 Broadway, KENTUCKY.

PORTER SMITH, NON-UNION AGENTS, RELIABLE FIRE INSURANCE AT LOW RATES.

5 BROADWAY, - - PARIS. KY.

W. SHACKELFORD, Contractor and Builder.

PARIS, KY. P. O. BOX O. W. DAVIS,

FURNITURE, CARPETS. WALL PAPER, Etc. Funeral Furnishings. Calls for Ambulance Attended Promptly.

My agency insures against fire. wind and storm-best old reliable prompt paying companies-

Night 108.

non-union. W. O. HINTON, Agt.

Digests what you eat.

This preparation contains all of the digestants and digests all kinds of food. It gives instant relief and never fails to cure. It allows you to eat all the good you want. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. By its use many thousands of dyspeptics have been cured after everything else failed. It prevents formation of gas on the stomach, relieving all distress after eating. Dieting unnecessary. Pleasant to take.

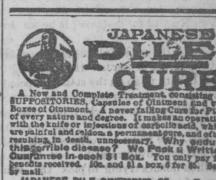

It can't help but do you good repared only by E. C. DEWITT & Co., Chicage the $1, bottle contains 2% times the 50c, size

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH

Safe. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH in Bed and Gold metallis boxes, scaled with blue ribbon Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. Buy of your Druggist or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Relief for Ladica," in letter by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists.

CHICHESTER CHEMICAL CO. 2100 Madison Square, P Montion this paper.

CONSTIPATION Cored, Piles the great Liver and Stomace Liver and Stomace Re and BLOOD PURIFIER. Small, mild at to take, especially adapted for children posses 25 cents. NOTICE—The Gent yapamese Pile Cure for sale only W. T. Brooks.

The Burlington's New Fast Denver Train. Its "Nebraska-Colorado Express," now leaves St. Louis 2:15 p. m., arrives at Denver 3:15 p. m. next day-three nours quicker. Travelers arriving at St. Louis in the morning have a half day for business or visiting in the World's Fair City; at 3:15 p. m. next day they are in Denver with the afternoon in the city, before leaving for the Coast via Scenic Colorado. No other through train to Denver offers such a remarkably convenient

The Burlington's other Denver train eaves St. Louis at 9 p. m.
Personally conducted California Excursions from St. Louis every Wedneslay night in through tourist sleepers via Scenio Colorado. TO THE NORTHWEST. "The Burlington-Northern Pacific Express" is the great daily through train to St. Louis and Kansas City to Montana, Washington, Tacoma, Seattle,

TO THE WEST. The Burlington runs the best equipped cains to Kansas City, St. Joseph maha, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Denver. Write us of your proposed trip and et us advise you the least cost, send you printed matter, tree, etc.
W. M. Shaw, D. P. A., 406 Vine street, Cincinnati, O. L. W. Wakeley, Gen'l Pass'r Agent, St. Louis, Mo. Howard Elliott General Manager, St. Louis. Mo.

SEND 32 cents and get a full, free trial of Wilson's Morphine Cure. Tested for 14 years and always successful. Send to CORP. WILSON, Calvert, (31jan-tf)

We are prepared to Clean, Press, Dye and Repair Clothing, and make them as good as new. Work satisfactory, or no parge. Work done when promised. hop over Thomas & Talbott s livery subio. Main street. THOMAS BROS.